How can I Present my Literature Circle work?

LIT. CIRCLE PRODUCTS

[Adapted from Flip Book, Too, Sandra Kaplan and Bette Gould]

IMPORTANT REMINDERS:

- For Your own Literature Circle Meeting:
  - Select any one of the presentation options below for your lit. circle meeting AND/OR for your group presentation.
  - You may combine any of these options with each other and/or with your lit. circle role.
- For Your Literature Circle Presentation (to the class):
  - include all work from your Roles and Insights from your Discussion in One or a Combination of the following:

GRAPHIC PRESENTATIONS

chart, sketchbook, time line, drawing, diagram, flow chart, poster, map, new book jacket, Concentric Circles, mind map
Poster containing various Products/Roles

MIXED MEDIA PRESENTATIONS

book, newspaper; TV show, PowerPoint, video poetry, or other computer generated item; photo essay, video; travelogue, iMovie, Broadcast News, news conference, Court T.V., Reader on the Street Interviews, "Puzzle Poster", Web-page [using Google's Page Creator], Literature Reflections

WRITTEN PRESENTATIONS

report [on setting], article, case study, essay, experimental study, analogies, paragraph, response to literature essay, sequel, recommendation letters, rated G version of the story, poem/song about the literature or character, eulogy for a character, biographical sketch, diary entries of a character, book review, letters to/from a character, revised into a new genre, crossword puzzle, newspaper, magazine

CONSTRUCTION

model, sculpture, diorama, miniature of the setting, mini-art gallery, museum exhibit, mobile, project cube, character box

SURVEYS & GRAPHS

favorites, opinions, physical objects, counts of things, progression/regression/ development, trends, factors/cause-effect influencing the author, author's style, setting, characters, and/or theme, map w/ legend

ORAL PRESENTATIONS

debate, panel discussion, lesson, oral report, play, readers' theater script, skit, Oprah Talk Show, impersonation of characters, monologues, Siskel-Roeper Review Duels, Oral Interpretation Performance (Reader's Theater)

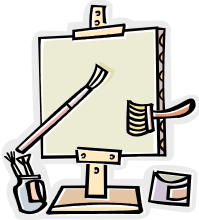
DATABASE

facts related to a topic or subtopic; information to be sorted, Data from Library of Congress, Census Data, History Resources, kept in/as files or Microsoft Excel; annotated bibliography

OTHER

forecast, scientific experiment or demonstration, collection, song or other piece of music, What if Demonstration, advertisement, flip book, learning center, web page, Podcast, Inside the Actor's (Characters' or Author's) Studio

ART & GAMES



game, game board, puzzle, display, art work, musical version/interpretation of story/scene, create a soundtrack, comic book, mural, game show